CREATIVE AIM Establish one believable actor whose identity remains exact from adolescence through Mary's elder years, across medical service, physician wardrobe, emotion, and action scenes.

Prepared from Dr. Mary Lefèvre Smith's character profile, storyboard character sheet, approved master identity, generated production references, and action storyboard.

How to use

- Treat the approved master as the definitive adult identity.
- Attach the master to every later generation and preserve the Identity Lock Prefix verbatim.
- Use the age references only within Mary's canonical lifespan.
- Reject any result that changes her facial anatomy, age logic, physician-wardrobe continuity, or period material culture.

PROMPT 01

Master Casting Headshot

Create the definitive identity reference before generating any other view.

Create one square photorealistic casting headshot of Dr. Mary Lefèvre Smith, a breathtakingly beautiful 33-year-old French physician in 1918.

Input 1 provides only the desired French cinematic spirit: cool self-possession, straight ash-brown hair, fringe, long elegant facial character, and magnetic gaze. Do not copy the exact person. Input 2 is Susan Harding Smith and shows the face Mary must NOT resemble.

Mary is an exceptional classic French beauty: a graceful long heart-to-diamond face with healthy feminine facial volume; luminous wide-set blue-gray almond eyes with elegant heavy lids; refined straight-to-subtly-aquiline nose; high sculpted cheekbones softened by natural youthful fullness; a beautifully proportioned wide mouth with full rose-colored lips and a precise Cupid's bow; graceful jaw; elegant tapered chin; long neck. Her features are balanced, memorable, sophisticated, and naturally sensual without posing or makeup glamour. She is arrestingly beautiful even in plain physician clothing.

Her complexion is luminous warm ivory with a few delicate freckles, realistic pores, natural tonal variation, and only slight wartime fatigue. She looks healthy, vital, and 33—not gaunt, hollow-cheeked, haggard, severe, pinched, plain, or older.

Hair is ash-brown with subtle honey highlights, lighter than Susan's brunette hair, fine and softly lustrous. A chic soft eyebrow-skimming fringe and long face-framing pieces evoke the reference, while the rest is gathered into a loose low historically plausible 1918 French chignon. The hair feels effortless and distinctly French, not modern salon styling.

Expression: calm, intelligent, confident, faintly enigmatic, and quietly warm. Direct gaze. Closed relaxed lips with the slightest suggestion of inner amusement. Her authority comes from intelligence and composure, not hardness.

Wardrobe: pale 1918 physician coat over a refined dove-gray high-collared blouse. Neutral light-gray seamless studio, centered head and shoulders, direct eye contact, eye-level 85mm lens, soft flattering but anatomy-revealing production light, true-to-life full color.

Mary must be entirely distinct from Susan: longer heart-diamond face, blue-gray almond eyes, lighter ash-brown fringe, wider full lips, more sculpted cheekbones, longer elegant nose, continental magnetism. Never use Susan's short oval face, brown eyes, narrow lips, dark center-parted pinned hair, or reserved New England appearance.

Exactly one real adult woman. No exact celebrity likeness, no gauntness, no severe austerity, no hollow cheeks, no beauty-filter plastic skin, no heavy makeup, no modern styling, no sexualized pose, no illustration, CGI, antique effect, text, border, or watermark.

CRITICAL RESTRICTION Photorealistic real-human casting photography only; no illustrated, engraved, painted, CGI, sepia, antique, or glamour treatment.

PROMPT 12

Live-Action Hero Still

Translate the approved storyboard into a wide full-color production still.

Use case: historical-scene, identity-preserve, sketch-to-render
Asset type: native 21:9 live-action cinematic website hero
Input 1 is the approved definitive identity of Dr. Mary Lefèvre Smith. Input 2 is the authoritative Episode 6 storyboard composition.
Convert the storyboard into a photorealistic full-color live-action still in Mary's Oasis Palms medical office during Prohibition, circa 1920. Mary is the standing physician behind the desk on the LEFT, consulting with a seated male patient or townsman on the RIGHT about medicinal whiskey. Mary must be the exact actor in Input 1: same approved beautiful long heart-to-diamond face, luminous blue-gray eyes, full lips, ash-brown hair with honey highlights, soft fringe, long face-framing pieces and low chignon, age 35, complexion, and natural asymmetry. Her face is unobstructed; no hat. Dress her in a pale period physician coat over a restrained blouse and long skirt, with practical gloves as she examines or presents a small medicine bottle.
Preserve the broad storyboard composition: bright window blinds casting striped desert sunlight, wooden desk, shelves of period medicine bottles and medical books, anatomy chart, papers and prescription materials, and the seated man viewed partly from behind. Replace the central branded whiskey bottle with an unbranded historically plausible amber medicinal-whiskey bottle bearing only indistinct non-readable period markings. Remove all storyboard captions, episode title, dates, signs, and prominent readable labels.
Wide 21:9 composition, natural 35mm cinema-lens perspective, Mary clearly readable as the hero on the left, safe margins, warm dusty sunlight, amber glass, dark wood, pale medical coat, natural skin, subtle filmic contrast. Prestige historical drama photographed on a practical set.
Exactly two people. Do not duplicate Mary or blend identities. No modern objects, electric fixtures, contemporary medicine, brand logos, readable text, illustration, engraving, monochrome, sepia, CGI, border, or watermark. Preserve believable hands and bottle grip.
