How to use

- Treat the approved master as the definitive adult identity at age 25 in 1945.
- Attach the master to every later generation and preserve the Identity Lock Prefix verbatim.
- Use the age references only within Molly's canonical 1920-1975 lifespan.
- Reject any result that changes her facial anatomy, approved hairstyle, age logic, Victory Cafe wardrobe, or period material culture.

PROMPT 01

Master Casting Headshot

Create the definitive identity reference before generating any other view.

Use case: photorealistic-natural
Asset type: definitive square casting headshot and character identity master

Image 1 is Molly Davenport Smith's illustrated character sheet. Use it only as authoritative role, energy, practical glamour, blonde grooming, expressive smile potential, waitress/tomboy contrast, and period reference. Do not reproduce the drawing, collage, lettering, apron, baseball glove, poses, or any exact illustrated face.

Create exactly one square photorealistic casting headshot of a real actor portraying Molly Davenport Smith at age 25 in 1945.

Character: born in Los Angeles in 1920 to Peter and Elizabeth Davenport; raised after her mother's death by Peter, Jack Smith, and Hattie Mae Johnson. Molly grew up between wealth and boarding-school expectations on one side and the grit of Oasis Palms on the other. She is an heiress who works comfortably as a small-town waitress, a desert tomboy with social polish, and the beloved childhood sweetheart of returning WWII pilot Louis "Lefty" Smith. She is spirited, grounded, quick-witted, resilient, approachable, dazzling without vanity, romantic but pragmatic, and capable of carrying private emotional burdens behind an easy smile.

Cast a striking, distinctive classic American beauty who cannot be confused with Susan Harding Smith, Dr. Mary Lefèvre Smith, Malika Smith, or another existing actor. Molly has a softly heart-shaped face with gentle width at the cheekbones; a smooth medium-height forehead; luminous clear blue eyes with slightly upturned outer corners; natural medium brows; a refined straight nose with a softly rounded tip; full expressive cheeks; a wide warm mouth with a defined cupid's bow and fuller lower lip; a graceful but sturdy jaw; and a softly pointed rounded chin. Her face should feel open, radiant, emotionally readable, and capable of both joy and hidden sorrow—not fragile, aristocratic, or model-perfect.

Complexion: fair-to-light warm California complexion with subtle freckles across the nose and upper cheeks, healthy desert sun exposure, realistic pores, tiny imperfections, and natural asymmetry. No heavy makeup, airbrushing, or glamour retouching.

Hair: naturally warm honey blonde, thick medium texture, shoulder-length but pinned and shaped into practical soft 1945 waves with a side part and modest rolled volume away from the face. Historically accurate, polished enough for Los Angeles upbringing but practical enough for diner work. No platinum bleach, exaggerated victory rolls, pin-up sculpture, modern balayage, extensions, or modern styling.

Wardrobe visible only at shoulders and upper chest: a clean, simple pale blue 1940s waitress blouse or cotton shirt with an open modest collar. No apron bib visible in the master, no jewelry beyond tiny plain stud earrings, no hat, fur, evening dress, logos, or props.

Expression: direct eye contact and a calm neutral casting expression softened by warmth, with the faintest natural suggestion of her famous welcoming smile. Intelligent, grounded, resilient, and emotionally present. Do not show a broad grin, pout, seductive pose, vacant glamour stare, theatrical sadness, or hardened scowl.

Photography: square 1:1 head-and-upper-shoulders casting portrait; centered face; eye-level 85mm perspective; neutral light-gray seamless studio background; soft even anatomy-revealing light; true-to-life full color; natural skin, hair, and cloth detail. Contemporary production-reference photography for a historical character, not an antique photograph.

Critical constraints: exactly one adult woman age 25. Photorealistic real-human photography only. No apron text, coffee, tray, baseball glove, diner scenery, wealth props, cigarette, hat, necklace, red lipstick exaggeration, pin-up pose, celebrity likeness, text, border, collage, illustration, engraving, CGI, sepia, antique damage, beauty retouching, plastic skin, modern hair, or watermark. Preserve natural asymmetry. This image will be Molly's definitive identity anchor for every future age, view, expression, diner scene, family scene, and action image.

CRITICAL RESTRICTION Photorealistic real-human casting photography only; no illustrated, engraved, painted, CGI, sepia, antique, or glamour treatment.

PROMPT 02

Identity Lock Prefix

Paste this block before every prompt after the master is approved.

The attached photograph is the definitive approved master identity for Molly Davenport Smith at age 25 in 1945. Create the exact same recognizable human actor. Preserve her softly heart-shaped face, cheekbone width, medium forehead, luminous blue eyes with subtly upturned outer corners, medium natural brows, refined straight nose with rounded tip, full cheeks, wide mouth with a defined cupid's bow and full lower lip, sturdy jaw, pointed-rounded chin, warm fair complexion, light freckles, realistic pores, natural asymmetry, and approved honey-blonde chin-length sculpted waves with a deep side part, swept forehead wave, and curled ends. She is an heiress raised in the desert who works naturally in the Victory Cafe: warm, capable, curious, spirited, grounded, and never fragile. Do not create a merely similar woman or make her resemble Susan Harding Smith, Dr. Mary Lefevre Smith, Malika Smith, or another Smith actor. Do not redesign, glamorize, beautify, or modernize her beyond the approved master. Photorealistic real-human photography only; no illustration, CGI, plastic skin, text, watermark, border, or celebrity likeness.

CONSISTENCY NOTE The approved master outranks stylistic interpretation. Age changes must remain biologically plausible within Molly's 1920-1975 lifespan.

PROMPT 03

Master Hairstyle Correction

Apply the approved shorter sculpted-wave hairstyle while preserving Molly's exact face.

Edit Image 1, Molly Davenport Smith's square master portrait, with one precise change. Image 2 is a hairstyle reference only.

Change only Molly's hair to match the general cut, silhouette, wave pattern, and face-framing character of Image 2: a shorter chin-length classic mid-century blonde coiffure with a deep soft side part, compact sculpted waves, a graceful swept wave across the forehead, curled ends framing the cheekbones and jaw, modest crown volume, and a slightly tousled natural finish. Keep the hair historically plausible for 1945 rather than copying a later celebrity photograph exactly. Use Molly's established natural warm honey-blonde color, not platinum white.

Preserve Molly's exact approved face and identity from Image 1: identical skull, forehead, luminous blue eyes, brows, nose, cheeks, wide mouth, lips, jaw, chin, ears, freckles, warm fair complexion, skin texture, age 25, expression, direct eyeline, natural asymmetry, pale blue blouse, earrings, neutral gray background, lighting, lens, crop, and square composition. Do not beautify or alter any facial feature. Do not copy the identity, makeup, expression, clothing, monochrome treatment, or background of Image 2.

Photorealistic full-color casting photography. Exactly one woman. No glamour retouching, heavy makeup, red lipstick, celebrity likeness, modern styling, text, border, illustration, CGI, sepia, monochrome, or watermark.

PROMPT 13

Live-Action Hero Still

Stage Molly pouring coffee for Lefty at the Victory Cafe in 1945.

Use case: historical-scene and identity-preserve
Asset type: native 21:9 live-action cinematic website hero still

Image 1 is the definitive approved identity for Molly Davenport Smith. Image 2 is the definitive approved identity for Louis "Lefty" Smith. Create a photorealistic full-color live-action cinematic still from Episode S01E07.

Scene: INT. VICTORY CAFÉ, OASIS PALMS - NEXT MORNING, 1945. A welcoming small-town Route 66 diner hums quietly with morning life. Warm sunlight streams through broad front windows and Venetian blinds, casting golden bands across a polished counter, chrome trim, red or muted teal vinyl stools, ceramic dishes, a glass pastry case, coffee urns, and historically accurate 1945 fixtures. The atmosphere suggests fresh coffee, sizzling bacon, and a town waking after wartime.

MOLLY is the visual and emotional center. She must be the exact same recognizable actor as Image 1 at age 25: identical softly heart-shaped face, luminous blue eyes, freckles, warm fair complexion, wide expressive mouth, natural asymmetry, and the approved short chin-length warm honey-blonde coiffure with side-swept sculpted waves and curled face-framing ends. Dress her in the canonical pale-blue 1945 waitress blouse or shirtwaist dress with a simple clean white waist apron and practical shoes.

Molly stands on the service side of the counter, leaning toward Lefty with affectionate curiosity as she pours him another cup of coffee from a period glass coffee pot with a dark handle. Her hands, pot angle, stream of coffee, cup, and counter contact must be natural and anatomically correct. She watches Lefty rather than the camera. Her expression is warm, amused, observant, and quietly in love—not a broad posed grin or seductive look.

LEFTY sits at the counter opposite her and must be the exact same recognizable actor as Image 2, biologically aged to 27 in 1945: identical lively blue-gray eyes, dark swept wavy hair, athletic expressive face, wide mobile mouth, tapered jaw, and warm-olive complexion. He is freshly returned from WWII but wears simple postwar civilian clothing: pale open-collar shirt with sleeves casually rolled and dark trousers. No military uniform, medals, hat, or flight gear. He digs into a believable plate of bacon and eggs fresh from the griddle, fork in hand, relaxed and hungry. He glances toward Molly with easy affection while remaining engaged with breakfast.

Supporting atmosphere: only two or three soft-focus patrons or a cook in the distant background, kept secondary and spatially separated. No crowd around the couple. No one resembles Molly or Lefty and no one looks at the camera.

Composition: wide 21:9 prestige-drama frame with natural 35mm cinema-lens perspective. Frame Molly prominently in three-quarter view on one side of the counter and Lefty seated opposite, with the coffee stream and their shared eyeline forming the visual connection. Show enough of the counter, breakfast plate, stools, and sunlit diner to establish place. Molly should occupy at least as much visual emphasis as Lefty because this is her character hero. Leave safe margins for responsive website cropping.

Lighting and color: warm golden morning sunlight, creamy ceramic, chrome highlights, pale blue uniform, white apron, rich coffee brown, bacon and egg color, muted red or teal upholstery, natural skin tones, subtle 35mm texture, detailed cloth and worn diner surfaces. It should look like a frame from a major prestige historical drama photographed on a practical set.

Historical constraints: accurate 1945 hair, clothes, coffee pot, cup, plate, flatware, breakfast presentation, counter, stools, cash register, appliances, signage shapes, and light fixtures. No modern diner nostalgia caricature, disposable cups, modern appliances, plastic squeeze bottles, contemporary logos, smartphones, television, neon overload, or readable brand names.

Critical constraints: exact approved Molly and Lefty identities. Exactly one Molly and one Lefty. Preserve Molly's revised short waved hairstyle. Correct hands, five fingers per hand, believable coffee pour and liquid stream, one coffee cup, one coffee pot, one breakfast plate, natural fork grip, and correct seated/standing anatomy. No duplicate faces, mirror duplicates, extra limbs, merged bodies, illustration, engraving, monochrome, sepia, CGI, screen-overlay text, captions, episode title, border, or watermark.
